

Announcements

- Welcome Guests and Visitors. We are delighted to have you join us at our service today in worshipping the Holy Trinity. Please take a moment after the service to introduce yourself to our pastor, Father Kirill. You are cordially invited to join us for the fellowship luncheon or coffee after the service!
- Youth / Camp Appeal. This Sunday every parish in our area is asked to make a special collection for our St. Eugene's Camp. This supports the fixed expenses of renting a campsite and the ability to have volunteer adult counsellors at no cost to them beyond making themselves available for a week. PS: The dates for camp this year are Sunday, June 25 (evening) through Saturday, July 1 (morning).
- Today is Sanctity of Life Sunday in the Orthodox Church in America. Thanks to all those who hosted pilgrims at our parish yesterday and who took part in the Walk for Life. See His Beatitude's message on oca.org.
- We wish every blessing to Daria Bekman & Leonid Bulannikov who are being wed here today at 2:00 pm.
- Memory Eternal! His Grace, Bishop Tikhon, our Former Bishop of San Francisco, Los Angeles, and the West fell asleep in the Lord this morning.
- Annual Parish Meeting. Our annual parish meeting will be Sunday January 29 following Divine Liturgy during our fellowship time. Please plan to attend! If you would like to serve in an elected position or know more, please speak with Felicia Dunham or Fr. Kirill. Please watch your e-mail for reports etc.

Today's Epistle Readings

1 Timothy 1:15-17

Timothy, my son: The saying is true and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am first. But for this reason I obtained mercy, that in me first Christ Jesus might show forth all patience, as an example to those who shall believe in Him unto life everlasting. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Romans 8:28-39 (New Martyrs)

Brethren: we know that all things work together for good for those who love God, whom He has called according to His purpose. For those whom He has foreknown He has also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, that He should be the firstborn among many brethren. And those whom He predestined He has also called, and those whom He has called He has also justified, and those whom He has justified He has also glorified.

What then shall we say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all, how shall He not also give us all things with Him? Who shall make accusation against the elect of God? It is God who justifies! Who shall condemn? It is Christ Jesus who died, yes, and rose again, He who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? As it is written, "For Thy sake we are put to death all the day long. We are regarded as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in creation shall be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Today's Gospel Readings

Luke 18:35-43

At that time, as Jesus was coming near Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the road begging. And hearing a multitude passing by, he asked what it meant. So they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Then those who went before warned him that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he had come near, He asked him, saying, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

He said, "Lord, that I may receive my sight."

Then Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has made you well." And immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Luke 21:8-19 (New Martyrs)

The Lord said: "Take heed that you not be deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and, 'The time has drawn near.' Therefore do not go after them. But when you hear of wars and commotions, do not be terrified; for these things must come to pass first, but the end will not come immediately."

Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be great earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven. But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons. You will be brought before kings and rulers for My name's sake. But it will turn out for you as an occasion for testimony. Therefore settle it in your hearts not to meditate beforehand on what you will answer; for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to contradict or resist. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But not a hair of your head shall be lost. By your patience possess your souls.
